43. Summarize the Islamic worldview.

Islam is a theistic worldview centered on the life of the prophet Muhammad that derives its understanding of the world through the teachings of the Quran, Hadith, and Sunnah. [3.2]

ESSAY [Each question is worth 4 points.]

Answer the following questions with at least one paragraph.

44. What is the history of Islam?

The founder of Islam, Muhammad, began seeing visions that he thought were demonic but later accepted as messages from God. He claims to have been visited by the angel Gabriel, who dictated the Quran to him over the next twenty-three years as the fulfillment of Allah's message to mankind. Muhammad gathered followers, raiding caravans to amass wealth, and eventually conquered large geographic areas of the Middle East. [3.4]

45. What are the three main factions of Islam, and what are the differences between the three?

Sunni Muslims insisted that Muhammad's successor should be elected by popular vote while Shiite Muslims believed that Muhammad's successor should be someone from his direct bloodline. Sufi Islam arose later as a reaction to the worldliness that some Muslims believed was taking over Islam as it grew in wealth and power. Unlike Sunnis and Shiites, Sufis believe that God has a personal and mystical nature. [3.4]
