

UTT Chapter 10 Test

MULTIPLE CHOICE [Each question is worth 1 point.]

Choose the correct answer from the choices below.

- 1. Which of the following actions are almost universally condemned by all cultures?
 - a. Murder
 - b. Adultery
 - c. Lying
 - d. All of the above [10.1]
 - e. A and B only

- 2. According to Secularism, who makes ethical rules?
 - a. Nature
 - b. Animals
 - c. God
 - d. Human beings [10.3]
 - e. A and B only

- 3. Which of the following are immoral according to Marxism?
 - a. Religion
 - b. Capitalism
 - c. Classless society
 - d. All of the above
 - e. A and B only [10.4]

- 4. Postmodern ethics is suspicious of what?
 - a. Revelation
 - b. Reason
 - c. Absolutes
 - d. Universals
 - e. All of the above [10.5]

- 5. From what source do Muslims derive their ethics?
 - a. Quran
 - b. Hadith
 - c. Pentateuch
 - d. All of the above
 - e. A and B only [10.7]

6. Christians see moral norms as proceeding from what?
- a. God's decree
 - b. God's nature [10.8]
 - c. Community values
 - d. Inner truth
 - e. Economics

TRUE OR FALSE [Each question is worth 1 point.]

Indicate if each statement is true or false. If the statement is false, alter it to make it true.

7. Christians see common ethical systems among vastly different cultures as evidence of a universal law and thus a universal lawgiver.

True [10.1]

8. Secularism binds itself to a completely naturalistic explanation for ethics.

True [10.3]

9. Secularists gravitate toward explaining ethical impulses as emerging from God.

False: evolutionary processes [10.3]

10. According to Marxist ethics, the ends never justify the means.

False: justify [10.4]

11. Violent revolution is discouraged according to Marxism's ethical system.

False: justified [10.4]

12. Postmodernism accepts the notion of universal moral norms.

False: rejects [10.5]

13. Pragmatism views words as tools for getting others to behave in a manner one deems preferable.

True [10.5]

14. According to New Spirituality, the source for morality is found within the Bible.

False: each of us [10.6]

15. Buddhism and Hinduism recognize that at least some actions are objectively wrong.

True [10.6]

16. There is no division of ethics and law in Islam.

True [10.7]

17. According to Islam, Allah is directly knowable, though his decrees are fully revealed through the actions of Muhammad.

False: is not [10.7]

18. The task of Christian ethics is to determine what conforms to God's character and what does not.

True [10.8]

FILL-IN-THE-BLANK [Each question is worth 2 points.]

Fill in the missing word to complete each statement.

19. Morality [10.2] is a personal standard of determining right and wrong.

20. Any ethical system that judges morality by the consequences of the actions is teleological [10.2].

21. Any ethical system that judges morality based upon some principal of duty is deontological [10.2].

22. Hedonism is the belief that we ought to do whatever maximizes our own personal pleasure. [10.2]

23. Ethical egoism [10.2] is the belief that we ought to do whatever is in our own best interest.

24. Scientism [10.3] is the philosophical belief that reliable knowledge is obtained solely through the scientific method.

25. Situation ethics [10.3a] is the belief that the morality of an action is determined by the unique situation of that action.
26. Secularists view science [10.3b] as the primary guide for forming a workable ethical outlook.
27. When asked what was the greatest commandment [10.8], Christ responded, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and love your neighbor as yourself" (Luke 10:27).
28. According to Romans 12:9 [10.8], "Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good."
29. The apex of Christ's ethical teaching (Matthew 5-7) is commonly referred to as the Sermon on the Mount [10.8].
30. According to Christianity, loving God means serving others both spiritually and physically [10.8].

SHORT ANSWER [Each question is worth 3 points.]

Answer the following questions with at least one sentence.

31. Define ethics.

Ethics is the study of moral conduct, values, duties, and goodness. [10.2]

32. Define moral relativism.

Moral relativism is the belief that morality is relative to, or defined by, the individual or culture. [10.3]

33. Define utilitarianism.

Utilitarianism is the belief that we ought to do whatever maximizes happiness and reduces suffering for the greatest number of people. [10.2]

34. Define proletariat morality.

Proletariat morality is the belief that whatever advances the proletariat and communism is morally good and whatever hinders the proletariat and communism is morally evil. [10.4]

35. Define cultural relativism.

Cultural relativism is the belief that truth and morals are relative to one's community. [10.5]

36. Define karma.

Karma is the belief that good is returned to those who do good, and evil is returned to those who do evil (either in this life or the next). [10.6]

37. Define divine command theory.

Divine command theory is the belief that right and wrong are determined by God's commands. [10.7]

38. Define agape.

Agape is the belief that morality is built upon two foundational moral absolutes: love of God and love of neighbor. [10.8]

ESSAY [Each question is worth 4 points.]

Answer the following questions with at least one paragraph.

39. What are some problems with teleological ethical theories?

[Students should explain at least two of the three reasons noted in the text]

First, teleological theories have a hard time accounting for why so many of us act against our self-interest. Second, although teleological theories require us to act according to outcomes, it is often difficult, if not impossible, to predict consequences. Finally, teleological systems can be used to justify doing evil in order to bring about good outcomes. [10.2]

40. What is the main problem with deontological ethical theories?

The main problem with deontological theories is that they do not allow for exceptions. According to such theories, conflicts between moral imperatives do not exist. However, conflicts do sometimes occur. In those situations, it makes sense to consider the consequences of our actions over a duty to follow principles. [10.2]