

Chapter 5 Test Answers

TR 5.10A

Multiple Choice [Each correct answer is worth 1 point.]

Circle the correct answer(s) from the choices below. Some will have more than one answer.

1. What is a narrative?
 - a. a story
 - b. a person who tells a story
 - c. a part of a story where someone speaks
 - d. an account of related events told to listeners or readers
 - e. none of the above
 - f. all of the above
2. Stories are important because stories . . .
 - a. offer good advice for living.
 - b. shape us and how we see the world.
 - c. keep us entertained.
 - d. show us how to create art.
3. Choose all the questions metanarratives seek to answer.
 - a. Who am I?
 - b. Why did that happen to me?
 - c. Where did I come from?
 - d. What is my purpose in life?
 - e. Where do I fit in socially?
 - f. What is wrong with the world?
 - g. What is the solution?
4. Why are metanarratives helpful?
 - a. Metanarratives make epic storytelling and superheroes possible.
 - b. Metanarratives help us make sense of the world.
 - c. Metanarratives are entertaining.
 - d. Metanarratives help us see our individual stories are not important.
5. What do postmodernists say about metanarratives?
 - a. Metanarratives give meaning to our lives.
 - b. Metanarratives are true for some people.
 - c. Metanarratives cannot be trusted.
 - d. Metanarratives help us make good stories.

Chapter 5 Test Answers

TR 5.10A

6. Choose all the elements of a well-written story.
 - a. Setting: time and place
 - b. Normativity: setting norms and standards
 - c. Conflict: a problem to solve or a challenge to overcome
 - d. Worldview: guiding belief about the world
 - e. Theme: the message or idea the author is interested in communicating
 - f. Characters: a protagonist, antagonist, and supporting cast
7. A worldview is a pattern of ideas and beliefs that . . .
 - a. should make us feel comfortable with life.
 - b. help us improve our relationships.
 - c. are largely unimportant to how we live our lives.
 - d. guide our decisions and actions.
8. Which worldview is characterized by placing its faith in human ability and progress to improve the world?
 - a. Islam
 - b. Christianity
 - c. Marxism
 - d. New spirituality
 - e. Secularism
9. We need a worldview that . . .
 - a. makes us feel good.
 - b. is true for us but not for everyone else.
 - c. is rooted in reality.
 - d. helps us live meaningful and fulfilling lives.
 - e. helps us get by in life.
 - f. none of the above
 - g. all of the above
10. Select all that are true of postmodernism.
 - a. argues that metanarratives cannot be trusted
 - b. proposes that individual narratives give meaning to life
 - c. says that people can reach a higher divine consciousness
 - d. rejects absolute, universal truths
 - e. contradicts many of its own proposed beliefs
 - f. makes a great framework for storytelling

Chapter 5 Test Answers

TR 5.10A

11. What are historical narratives?
- a. fictional stories told like histories
 - b. a type of writing found only in the Bible
 - c. historical accounts told in story form
 - d. poems that retell history lyrically
12. Select all that are acts in the biblical metanarrative.
- a. Redemption Initiated
 - b. Perfection Restored
 - c. Fall
 - d. Creation
 - e. Restoration Accomplished
 - f. Church Repaired
 - g. Redemption Accomplished

True or False [Each question is worth 1 point.]

Indicate if each statement is true or false. If the statement is false, change the underlined word(s) to make it true.

 F 13. About two-thirds of the Bible is written as historical narrative. half

 F 14. United States history is an example of a metaphor. metanarrative

 T 15. The wisdom literature, poetry, prophecies, and letters in the Bible were written within the larger historical narrative.

 T 16. When we say that the Bible is comprehensive, we mean that it is complete and contains everything that is necessary and relevant.

 F 17. Though the Bible was written over 1,500 years by multiple authors, it is consistent throughout. This points to human effort. divine inspiration

 F 18. The human authors of the Bible did not know the details of the whole story but were still working within a larger worldview, which they were largely aware of.
narrative/metanarrative

 T 9. God, as the Creator of the world, is committed to redeeming his creation.

Chapter 5 Test Answers TR 5.10A

- T 20. Marxism sees all of history as class warfare and aims for a future utopian, atheistic state where property and possessions are held in common by the people. _____

Fill-in-the-blank [Each answer is worth 2 points.]

Fill in the missing word to complete each statement.

21. The Bible is historical in nature. It is also comprehensive, coherent, and normative.
22. Islam is a theistic worldview centered on the life of the prophet Mohammad.
23. In Romans 1:1–5, we learn that Paul saw his own story in light of God’s big story/grand story/metanarrative.
24. Creation is the first act of the biblical metanarrative represented in Genesis 1–2.
25. Act 4 in the biblical metanarrative, Redemption Accomplished, is represented by the life and death of Jesus.
26. We know the end of the story, when God makes “all things new” (Revelation 21:5).
27. God does not sit on the sidelines; he is active in his story.
28. We are image - bearers of God, made for eternal relationship with our Creator.
29. “When the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son (Galatians 4:4).

Short Answer [Each question is worth 3 points.]

Answer the following questions using complete sentences.

30. List the six acts of the biblical metanarrative in the correct order.
The six acts are Act 1: Creation, Act 2: Fall, Act 3: Redemption Initiated, Interlude (optional to include), Act 4: Redemption Accomplished, Act 5: Restoration Initiated, and Act 6: Restoration Accomplished.
31. What are the five popular non-Christian worldviews discussed in this lesson?
Five popular non-Christian worldviews discussed in this lesson are postmodernism, secularism, new spirituality, Marxism, Islam.

Chapter 5 Test Answers TR 5.10A

32. What are the three characteristics of the Bible? List and briefly define them. Identify the one that points toward divine inspiration.

Comprehensive means complete and including everything necessary and relevant.

Coherent means orderly, logical, and consistent throughout. This points to divine inspiration. Normative means setting norms or standards, especially of behavior.

Essay [Each question is worth 5 points.]

Answer the following questions with at least one paragraph.

33. Describe one popular worldview mentioned in the lesson and contrast it with Christianity. Answers should include one of the following worldviews in addition to Christianity: Postmodernism: A worldview that tends to be skeptical of all truth claims and rejects the idea that metanarratives can provide meaning to life.

Secularism: An atheistic/agnostic worldview that puts its faith in human ability and progress to make the world a better place.

New spirituality: A worldview that teaches that everything is god and that peace and harmony come from getting in touch with divine consciousness.

Marxism: A worldview that sees all of history as class warfare and that aims for a future utopian, atheistic state where everything is held in common by the people.

Islam: A theistic worldview centered on the life of the prophet Muhammad that derives its understanding of the world from the Quran, Hadith, and Sunnah.

Christianity: A theistic worldview centered around the message of the Bible and the person of Jesus Christ. This worldview sees human beings as image-bearers of God, now broken, and history as one grand story of God's plan to redeem his creation, which has fallen under the curse of sin and rebellion.

34. Using what you have learned, explain three things the biblical metanarrative helps us understand about God, humans, the Bible, the world, and/or the nature of reality.
Possible answer: Understanding the Bible's metanarrative can help us understand difficult passages in a larger context. The metanarrative can help us understand that we are part of one big story. The metanarrative can help us understand God's character by how he gets involved with people and creation.