Short Answer [Each question is worth 3 points.]

Answer the following questions using complete sentences.

28. List the first three kings of Israel. Describe each one’s relationship with God.
Saul—started out following God but then took matters into his own hands and did evil things. David—even though David sinned, he always acknowledged and sought the Lord, leading Israel to follow God’s laws. Solomon—started out with a humble heart but had many wives and concubines who drew his heart away from God to worship the gods of foreign lands.
29. Describe the destructive pattern Israel fell into during the period of the judges.
First, Israel would fall into idolatry and sin, so God would allow them to be oppressed by other nations. Then, Israel would cry out to the Lord, so he would raise up a judge to deliver them. Israel would turn back to God for a time, but eventually they would fall back into idolatry and the cycle would repeat.
30. List two reasons God commanded the Israelites to conquer Canaan and drive out the nations living there.
God commanded the destruction and expulsion of the Canaanite nations as a punishment for doing evil things. They abused women, sacrificed children to their gods, and participated regularly in sex slavery and idolatry. Second, God knew that if the Canaanites stayed in the Promised Land, they would teach the Israelites to do evil too.

Essay [Question is worth 5 points.]

Answer the following question with at least one paragraph.

31. Explain the mission of Israel. Explain whether the Israelites succeeded or failed at fulfilling their mission during the period of the judges. Why?

The mission of Israel was to show the nations around them what God is really like and how to relate to him. This way, the other nations could know God, too. During the time of the judges, the Israelites mostly failed at this. They kept sinning and worshipping idols, then asking God for deliverance from the oppression of their enemies. They would worship God for a while but then begin doing the same sins again.
