

Multiple Choice [Each correct answer is worth 1 point.]

Circle the correct answer(s) from the choices below. Some will have more than one answer.

1. The Incarnation is best described as . . .
 - a. creation's response to Jesus' arrival.
 - b. the eternally divine Son of God becoming human.
 - c. Jesus' announcement of the kingdom of God.
 - d. a description of our humanness.
2. Which description matches how Jesus described himself?
 - a. a charismatic faith healer
 - b. one of many Jewish prophets
 - c. a philosopher who gave good advice for living
 - d. the Messiah who would rescue the world from sin
 - e. a social reformer aiming to bring equality between all people
3. Which accurately describe the meaning of "the Christ?"
 - a. Greek word meaning "Great Physician"
 - b. another name for Messiah
 - c. Greek word meaning "anointed"
 - d. Hebrew word meaning "King of kings"
 - e. Jesus' last name
4. What roles are included in Jesus' claim to be Messiah?
 - a. Prophet
 - b. Pastor
 - c. Prince
 - d. King
 - e. Priest
 - f. Baptizer
5. Choose the ways that Jesus claimed to be God.
 - a. He said, "I am the living God."
 - b. He allowed Peter to call him "the Christ."
 - c. He used the name for God revealed to Moses: "I am."
 - d. He proved that he was smarter than his enemies.
 - e. He called himself the "Son of Man."
 - f. He forgave the sins of a paralyzed man and healed him.

6. The Golden Rule says to . . .
 - a. love God and love your neighbors as yourself.
 - b. abide in Jesus so we can keep his commands.
 - c. treat others the way you want to be treated.
 - d. not worship idols.
7. Choose all that an ethical teaching refers to . . .
 - a. an instruction about what is right and wrong.
 - b. an instruction on how to live comfortably.
 - c. an instruction about how to become a perfect person.
 - d. an instruction about our thoughts, words, and actions.
8. Choose four lessons about the kingdom of God that Jesus taught through parables.
 - a. The kingdom does not come all at once.
 - b. The kingdom is figurative and never literal.
 - c. The final judgment of the kingdom is reserved for the future.
 - d. The full revelation of the kingdom is postponed to allow more people to enter.
 - e. The kingdom is for Christians and the unbelieving alike.
 - f. The kingdom does not come in irresistible power in the present.
9. What is redemption?
 - a. to be daily transformed in the image of Christ
 - b. to be rescued from the consequences of sin through the suffering of Jesus
 - c. the action of the eternally divine Son of God becoming a human being
 - d. the just and peaceful rule of God
10. Choose all blessings that belong to the eight beatitudes.
 - a. those who mourn
 - b. the meek
 - c. the mighty
 - d. the merciful
 - e. the polite
 - f. the peacemakers
11. Choose all that are true of the Incarnation.
 - a. The Incarnation is essential for salvation.
 - b. The Incarnation affirms that creation is good.
 - c. The Incarnation means that Jesus suffers with us.
 - d. The Incarnation is the beginning of the biblical story.
12. Which is true of Jesus' nature?
 - a. Jesus was a spirit with the appearance of a body.
 - b. Jesus was a man who was an inspired teacher, but not divine.
 - c. Jesus was both fully God and fully human.
 - d. Jesus had some of God's attributes.

Chapter 10 Test Answers

TR 10.10A

True or False [Each question is worth 1 point.]

Indicate if each statement is true or false. If the statement is false, change the underlined word(s) to make it true.

- T 13. The writers of the four Gospels are unanimous about Jesus being more than a prophet or healer; he was God in human flesh. _____
- F 14. Luke 4:17–19 says “the Word became flesh and dwelt among us.” John 1:14
- T 15. Matter—our bodies and all of creation—is good. _____
- F 16. Miracles served as a sign of the judgment. kingdom of God
- F 17. Roughly one-third of each gospel is devoted to the crucifixion. one-half
- T 18. The Incarnation is essential for salvation. _____
- T 19. One implication of the ascension is that Jesus is accessible. _____
- F 20. Medical evidence supports the theory that Jesus could have simply swooned on the cross and revived in the cool air of the tomb. does not support

Fill-in-the-blank [Each answer is worth 2 points.]

Fill in the missing word(s) to complete each statement.

21. The just and peaceful rule of God over all creation is called the kingdom of God.
22. In the parable of the vineyard, the master represents God, the farmers represent the Jewish religious leaders, the servants represent the prophets, and the son represents Jesus.
23. Jesus taught people to love their enemies.
24. According to the student textbook, Jesus’ most famous ethical teaching is called the Sermon on the Mount.
25. The gospel is the good news that through Jesus, salvation and forgiveness are available to all.

26. “For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.” (1 Corinthians 15:3–4)
27. God is concerned with the heart and not just our outward actions.
28. The birth of Jesus fulfilled the prophecies and hopes of Israel for a righteous leader who would establish God’s kingdom.
29. The most plausible explanation for the disciples’ transformation is that the resurrection of Jesus actually happened.

Short Answer [Each question is worth 3 points.]

Answer the following questions using complete sentences.

30. Why did the Jewish religious leaders want to kill Jesus once they heard his parable of the vineyard?
- The Jewish religious leaders understood the parable’s meaning—that God was going to judge them for rejecting the testimony of the prophets and for rejecting his Son, Jesus.
31. Name two major miracles Jesus performed that confirmed God’s love and power. Possible answers: The feeding of the five thousand, the raising of Lazarus
32. Choose three of the beatitudes. Name and describe the people who Jesus said are blessed. Answers should include three of the following:
- “The poor in spirit” refers to those who are humble before God.
 - “Those who mourn” refers to those who grieve, often in difficult situations.
 - “The meek” refers to those who have a gentle spirit and are not arrogant.
 - “Those who hunger and thirst for righteousness” are people who long for God to set things right.
 - “The merciful” describes those who have a generous attitude, and do not take revenge or gloat over others’ shortcomings.
 - “The pure in heart” are those who are pure inwardly, not just outwardly.
 - “The peacemakers” refers to those who reconcile and bring others together.
 - “Those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake” describes disciples who suffer because of their willingness to follow God’s ways.

Chapter 10 Test Answers

TR
10.10A

Essay [Each question is worth 5 points.]

Answer the following questions with at least one paragraph.

33. Explain what Jesus meant when he said, “Judge not, that you not be judged.”

Possible answers: Jesus did not mean that we cannot judge someone’s actions or words as right or wrong. Jesus warned us against hypocritical judgment. For example, pointing out others’ sins while committing the same sin ourselves or pointing out others’ sins while ignoring our own personal sins and weaknesses.

34. What does the Incarnation mean to you personally? How does it affect your relationship with God the Father and Jesus the Son?

Answers will vary.