29. The slaughtered Lamb represents Christ.

Short Answer [Each question is worth 3 points.]

Answer the following questions using complete sentences.

30. Briefly describe the New Jerusalem.
The New Jerusalem is a perfect city and beautiful place where humans and creation can live in freedom with God. There will be no more suffering or death there.
31. Explain the eternal destination of Christians. Use the terms heaven and new creation in your answer.
Heaven is where God is eternally worshipped and where believers who have died are present with Christ. The new creation is the final destination of all believers. The new creation is not here yet.
32. Why is the second coming the steadfast hope of the church?
Answers should include: The second coming is the hope of the church because Jesus will restore all things.

Essay [Each question is worth 5 points.]

Answer the following questions with at least one paragraph.

33. Answer the objection, “If God is loving, why does he send people to hell?” [Note: pay careful attention to the wording of the objection.]
Possible answer: In a way, people choose hell because they do not want God now or in eternity. God is too loving to force people to be with him. Some people would rather continue living forever in selfishness. God doesn’t send people to hell in the vindictive way people think. God is both just and loving, which is important. If God is good, he must punish evil.
34. Defend the biblical view of judgment. How does it relate to the image of the slaughtered Lamb? Possible answer: Sometimes judgment is when God gives people over to the consequences of their evil actions. Other times it is God’s direct justice against evil.

Chapter 12 Test Answers TR 12.10A

Judgment is not God getting even with people he doesn't like. God will eliminate evil once and for all and prepare the way for the new creation to be revealed. The slaughtered Lamb demonstrates that God is merciful as well as just. The Lamb sacrificed himself to take God's judgment off of those who trust in him.

35. How does knowing the end of the biblical metanarrative give you hope and help you face suffering or grief?

Answers will vary but should include: The end of the biblical metanarrative gives us hope that God will restore all things. When he does, pain, suffering, and death will be no more.
