Essay [Each question is worth 5 points.]

Answer the following questions with at least one paragraph.

30. Someone who follows Jesus must serve others, pick up his or her cross daily, and be ready to face persecution. If all this is true, how can Jesus' followers have any hope? Explain.

Even though following Jesus means serving others, picking up your cross every day, and facing trouble or persecution, Christians can have hope because their hope is based on Jesus. Christian hope is trusting in what Jesus has done and will do. Christians have hope despite trouble and suffering because they know that Jesus not only died on the cross but rose again. Christians trust that Jesus will return, banish sin and death forever, and establish God's kingdom in the new heavens and the new earth.

31. Why does Scripture show us that the New Testament churches were not perfect?

The Bible shows us that the New Testament churches were not perfect because this helps us understand that spiritual growth takes time. Also, knowing that the New Testament churches had many problems shows us that even relationships between believers will not necessarily be perfect because we are all sinners. Even when we trust in Jesus and are saved, we still need to learn to walk with God and follow his ways. Following Jesus is not easy but is a gradual process of learning to imitate Jesus and becoming more Christlike.

32. God created us, but human beings are not like he created us to be. Who does God want us to be like? How do we become the people he wants us to be?

God made us to be people who would be in loving relationship with him, ourselves, others, and creation. He wanted us to rule the earth and use the gifts he gave us for his glory. Because we inherited a sinful nature, we are not the people he wanted us to be. God wants us to be more like Christ. We can become the people he wants us to be by trusting in Jesus and allowing the Holy Spirit to work in us to transform our character.
