26. Two metaphors Jesus used for our mission as Christians are salt and light.
27. “For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit” (1 Peter 3:18).
28. Mary of Bethany serves as an example of discipleship in action.

Short Answer [Each question is worth 3 points.]

Answer the following questions using complete sentences.

29. What function do creeds serve for Christians?
Creeds remind Christians of their true story and of their role in the mission of God.
30. Briefly explain the role of good works in the Christian life.
Good works don’t help us receive salvation, but we do good works because we love God and want to show God’s love to others. Faith produces good actions.
31. List the three roles of apologetics.
defending the faith, commending the faith, translating the faith
32. What is the difference between justification and sanctification?
Justification is being declared righteous before God through faith in the work of Jesus Christ. Jesus already accomplished justification. Sanctification is the process of becoming more like Jesus. Sanctification is an ongoing process accomplished by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Essay [Each question is worth 5 points.]

Answer the following questions with at least one paragraph.

33. How does the identity of Christians inform their mission?

Possible answer: Like all people, Christians are created in God's image. In addition, Christians' core identity is rooted in Christ. We have been saved and redeemed by Jesus. When we put our trust in him, we become partners with God in his work of redemption and restoration. Because of our identity, we show love to the world and share the gospel through our actions and words.

34. What can Christians learn from Paul's example of using apologetics in different contexts?

Possible answer: Christians can learn a lot about commending, defending, and translating the gospel from Paul. For example, we can learn to gain the trust of our audience members through respectful behavior and listening well, like Paul did in Pisidia. We can learn about the culture of our audience and translate the gospel so they can understand it, like Paul did in Pisidia and Athens. We can also use our testimony of a transformed life to explain the gospel, as Paul did when he commended the faith before King Agrippa. We can always be ready to defend the faith, as Paul seemed to be.
