Short Answer [Each question is worth 3 points.]

Answer the following questions using complete sentences.

33. Explain the main reason to trust in Christ.

The main reason to trust in Christ is to be reconciled to God.

34. List three principles to keep in mind when talking about hell with non-Christians.
Three things to keep in mind are to leave judgment to God, take evil seriously, and amplify the beauty of the gospel.
35. What is our role when it comes to those who haven't heard of Jesus?
Salvation comes from hearing and receiving the gospel, so our role is to share the gospel and to be confident that God will get his message to those who are seeking him.

Essay [Each question is worth 5 points.]

Answer the following questions with at least one paragraph.

36. How does God's character help us understand the fate of small children who die before they are able to receive Christ?
Possible answer: We know that God is both just and merciful. The Bible is clear that people will be judged by their works, but salvation comes by grace through faith. Some Scriptures indicate that children are held accountable for their sins once they are old enough to understand the difference between good and evil. So, it is possible God extends special grace to children who are not yet able to accept or reject Christ. Because we can trust God to do what is best, we can have peace that he will do what is right in this situation.
37. Explain why Christians cannot afford to remain silent about hell and how Christians can talk about hell in a way that is helpful and effective.
Possible answer: It can be difficult to talk about hell because we are afraid of offending people or making them resistant to hearing about Jesus. However, Christians cannot afford to remain silent about hell. We need to warn people about God's justice so they can turn to Jesus and be saved. If people don't know the bad news about sin and hell, they won't be able to understand the good news that Jesus died to save them from sin and its consequences. It's not loving to avoid talking about hell.
