

Chapter 15 Test– Answer Key

Matching [Each correct answer is worth 1 point.]

Match each item to the correct answer or answers.

- | | |
|----------------------------------|---|
| E 1. Ancient Near East | A. Psalms in which the author calls down divine vengeance on enemies |
| B 2. Ethnocentrism | B. The view that one's own ethnic or cultural group is normative or superior to another |
| D 3. Genocide | C. The kidnapping or coercion of people into slavery |
| C 4. Human trafficking | D. The systematic killing or destruction of an entire people group |
| A 5. Imprecatory psalms | E. The setting in which the Old Testament was written |
| G 6. Indentured servitude | F. A system of unpaid, forced labor in which persons are considered to be property |
| F 7. Slavery | G. A voluntary agreement in which a person does unpaid work in order to settle a debt |
| L 8. Marcion | H. A runaway slave who became a Christian and returned to his master |
| K 9. Jephthah | I. People whom God commanded the Israelites to destroy |
| J 10. Philemon | J. A Christian leader and slaveholder |
| H 11. Onesimus | K. A victorious general who accidentally vowed to sacrifice his only daughter to God |
| I 12. Canaanites | L. A Christian leader who proposed revising the canon |

Multiple Choice [Each correct answer is worth 1 point.]

Circle the correct answer(s) from the choices below. Some will have more than one answer.

13. Who does Exodus 21:16 say should be put to death?
 - a. human traffickers
 - b. indentured servants
 - c. slaves
 - d. slaveholders
 - e. captives of war

14. Deuteronomy 23:15–16 says that runaway slaves should be . . .
 - a. put to death.
 - b. returned to the slaveholder.
 - c. allowed to live wherever they choose.
 - d. imprisoned.
 - e. allowed to remain free.

15. How does Leviticus 19:33–34 say strangers should be treated?
 - a. with caution
 - b. with love
 - c. like people who are natives or citizens
 - d. like they would be treated in Egypt
 - e. like gods

16. What is true of prescriptive passages in Scripture?
 - a. Some prescriptive passages are easy to interpret and apply.
 - b. Some prescriptive passages clearly present God’s ideal for humanity.
 - c. Some prescriptive passages appear to conflict with God’s ideals.
 - d. The Ten Commandments and the Great Commission are prescriptive passages.
 - e. Some prescriptive passages are confusing to modern readers.

17. What can we remember in considering why some of God’s instructions to the Israelites in the Old Testament fall far short of our modern standards?
 - a. God knew that hard-hearted people needed to be led with small steps.
 - b. Old Testament standards are deficient and most should not be part of the canon.
 - c. God expressed his ideal (love your neighbor as yourself) in other parts of Scripture.
 - d. Change is hard. Drastic changes can cause greater problems than expected.
 - e. The instructions were not written to us but to Israelites in a very specific situation.

18. What two truths impacted how slavery and indentured servitude were practiced in Israel?
 - a. All people bear God’s image.
 - b. All slavery was race-based.
 - c. Slavery was the most effective way to integrate foreigners into Israel.
 - d. God constantly reminded the Israelites that they had been slaves in Egypt.
 - e. Indentured servants could never be freed from their service.

19. What did Paul ask Philemon to do?
 - a. receive Onesimus as a brother in Christ
 - b. forgive Onesimus for running away
 - c. free Onesimus to survive on his own and make his way in the world
 - d. show that the institution of slavery was God-ordained
 - e. carry Paul’s letter back to where he came from and face the consequences

20. What did the flood accomplish?
 - a. It brought judgment to a creation that had become corrupted.
 - b. It served as practice for the next time God brings such destruction to creation.
 - c. It prevented evil from completely wrecking God’s good creation.
 - d. It allowed God to express his rage.
 - e. It allowed God to recreate the world and put limits on evil

21. Why are imprecatory psalms included in Scripture?
- a. because warnings to stay away from violent speech are only in the New Testament
 - b. because they portray the honest feelings of people who suffered injustice
 - c. because they model hate speech for us
 - d. because poetic language is effective in drawing attention to human experiences
 - e. because they model bringing our desires for vengeance to God

True or False [Each question is worth 1 point.]

Indicate if each statement is true or false. If the statement is false, change the underlined word to make it true.

- F 22. A prescriptive passage tells what happened; it does not necessarily mean that God approves of or commands similar actions. descriptive
- T 23. A prescriptive passage gives specific commands or instructions that lead to flourishing and furthering God's kingdom. _____
- F 24. At the time they were written, Deuteronomy's regulations on the treatment of women war captives were thought to be appalling. merciful
- T 25. Indentured servitude was a means of alleviating poverty within Israel.
- F 26. Jesus said it would be better to drown in the sea than to do harm to a Pharisee. child
- F 27. Jesus' death on the cross is essentially cosmic child abuse. is not

Fill-in-the-blank [Each answer is worth 2 points. Question 30 is worth 4 points.]

Fill in the missing word(s) to complete each statement.

28. At the cross, God poured out his wrath on himself rather than on someone else because Jesus is fully God.
29. There is no Scriptural basis for justifying slavery or racism today, as all people bear God's image, Jesus loves and died for all, and all are equal in him.
30. To make sense troubling passages, we need patience, endurance, and trust in God as we acknowledge our limitations and do the hard work of contextual investigation.

31. Jesus makes clear God’s ultimate ethic of self-giving love.

Short Answer [Each question is worth 3 points.]

Answer the following questions using complete sentences.

32. Describe what we should keep in mind in reading the book of Revelation.

The book of Revelation is filled with violent images that are about justice and judgment of sin. Such images were regularly used in first-century apocalyptic literature. They are symbolic of the seriousness with which God takes evil. Revelation portrays God as winning the victory through the suffering and death of the Lamb, not through physical violence, but through self-giving love.

33. Why was Marcion’s approach to Scripture flawed?

Marcion was so troubled by the depiction of God in the Old Testament that he thought Yahweh was a different and inferior deity compared to the God in the New Testament. He ended up creating his own canon and throwing out much of Scripture.

Essay [Each question is worth 5 points.]

Answer the following questions with at least one paragraph.

34. Discuss ethnocentrism in relation to Colossians 3:11 and Acts 10:34–35.

Possible answer: In Acts 10:34–35, Peter says that “God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who hears him and does what is right is acceptable to him.” So, God does not show ethnocentrism. He does not prefer one ethnic or cultural group over another. Colossians 3:11 supports Peter’s claim about God. It suggests there are no ethnic, religious, class, or economic differences in the body of Christ. He is all, so all who believe in him can be his representatives to the world, and he is in all, so he indwells every person who receives him.

35. Explain why Jesus cannot be considered a violent man.

Possible answer: Despite his actions in the temple, where he overturned the moneychangers’ tables, Jesus cannot be considered a violent man. He didn’t rely on violence in fulfilling his mission to proclaim the good news of God’s kingdom. He taught people to love their neighbors and even their enemies. He taught that we should pray for our enemies, forgive others, and even suffer for others’ sake. Though he had the power to command armies of angels and could have led a rebellion against Rome, he instead chose to be crucified in our place, dying for sin and then rising again to give us new life.